

Administration Staff

As well as academic institutions themselves, their administrative and maintenance staff is more and more involved in activities that go beyond national boundaries. Therefore, the University of Granada wishes to promote, facilitate and support this type of activities for their administrative staff and those from other international academic institutions.

If you want to know more about these activities, please choose your profile:

- Administrative Staff of the UGR
- Staff Training Week at the University of Granada for international staff