Conference “World potential making education meet the challenge, 24-26 March 2010 (UK)

Descripción: This year's conference theme is WORLD POTENTIAL: MAKING EDUCATION MEET THE CHALLENGE. In the face of the worst recession in decades countries are increasingly becoming isolationist. If so, what are the implications for international education? How is the global mobility of staff and students being affected and what should they do? And how does it impact the sharing of knowledge and ideas worldwide? Is the vision of a truly international education system under threat? Join the debate at Going Global 4 – the international education conference.
