Staff Training Week 2016

The University of Granada is happy to inform you that its 7th Staff Training Week within the Erasmus Staff Mobility Programme will be held from 16th to 20th May 2016.

What is in the programme?

- Definitive Programme General University Administration
- Definitive Programme University Libraries.
- Definitive Programme Information Technology.
- Definitive Programme Careers Services
- Optional activities programme

Online Application

The online application will open from 18th February to 3rd March 2016 inclusive.

Who can attend?

The Staff Training Week is open to all administrative members of staff of our partner Universities. That is, it is not necessarily for International Relations Office staff. This initiative will be focused on 4 main tracks:

- General University Administration. We will accept up to 60 participants.
- University libraries. We will accept up to 20 participants.
- Information Technology. We will accept up to 10 participants.
- Careers Services. We will accept up to 10 participants.

If we receive more applications, there will be a selection process based on our possibility to find the best match for our Granada colleagues, in order to maximise the outcomes of the week. We will send you an email before 17th March to let you know whether your application has been selected.

Hope to see you soon in Granada. We look forward to welcoming you!
