

HACK-IT

- Programa: Erasmus +.
- Acción: KA2 Partnerships for Cooperation
- Coordinación: Polytechnic Institute of Bragança
- Socios: Kaunas University of Technology (Lituania), Haaga-Helia University of Applied Sciences (Finlandia), University West (Suecia), Universidad de Granada (España).
- Fechas: 01.02.2022 -31.01.2025.
- Descripción: Hackathon e Metodologías Innovadoras no Ensino Superior: The project addresses the imperatives to create more flexible and inclusive as well as secure technology enhanced open education that can be delivered in online, blended, and distance modes of teaching/learning. The project addresses the importance of supplementing teachers' expertise in content knowledge with digital and pedagogical competences in order to ensure high quality, active, and transformative teaching/learning. It aims to enable teachers to implement and develop innovative practices in education in the digital era, promote and reward excellence in teaching and skills' development, tackle, focus on and breach gaps and mismatches in teachers' competences as well as develop a versatile approach to student learning in a way that will improve teacher and student active participation and satisfaction, efficient cooperation in teaching/learning settings.
- Página web: <https://hackit.ipb.pt/>
- Notas de prensa:
 - La UGR participa en la Asociación de Cooperación Erasmus + para capacitar a los profesores la implantación y desarrollo de metodologías innovadoras basadas en las TIC en la educación superior
 - Newsletter I HACK-IT (English version)
 - Proyecto europeo "Hack-IT": Profesores y profesoras de la Universidad de Granada completan con éxito su formación internacional en metodologías innovadoras basadas en las TIC para la educación superior
 - Newsletter II HACK-IT (English version)