Coordinación: University of Lyon 3 (Francia)

Socios:

Saint-Joseph University
Universidad de Granada
University of Bucharest
University of Essex

Cofinanciado por la Unión Europea

Descripción:

The main objective of JANUS is to train students to become experts in the field of security and defense, capable of understanding these in the best possible way and to have a complementary vision of them. The JANUS Joint Master Erasmus Mundus will bring an added value to the students insofar as they will be trained in a perspective of decompartmentalisation of disciplines in order to be able to react effectively to the globalisation of insecurity by mastering the importance of the geopolitical and cultural contexts.
