MASTER'S DEGREES

UNIVERSIDAD DE GRANADA

MASTER'S DEGREES

The University of Granada offers a wide selection of high-quality training programmes in all fields of knowledge with a clear international vocation. With a community of nearly 57,000 students, 11% of our Undergraduate students and 27% of our Postgraduate students are international.

Currently, the UGR offers more than 100 official master's degrees, including 4 Erasmus Mundus programmes, 20 international double degrees, 16 blended and online learning programmes, 2 bilingual programmes (Spanish-English) and 3 taught completely in English.

This list of official master's degrees may be subject to modification in the next academic year. For a fully updated list, please consult:
masteres.ugr.es

Most UGR master's degrees consist of 60 ECTS credits, equivalent to one academic year (from October to July/September). Degrees with a higher teaching load are expressly indicated. For further information on the validity of these qualifications for practising professions in Spain and abroad, please consult:
https://ec.europa.eu/growth/tools-databases/regprof/home

(HAB): Licensure master's degree for regulated professions (Qualifying master's degree)
(AH): Licensure-like master's degree for non-regulated professions (Master's degree assimilated to qualifying)
(APNR): Non-licensure master's degree (Non-qualifying master's degree)

10 REASONS TO STUDY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF GRANADA

1 EXCELLENCE

Recognised for its quality in the teaching, research, culture and services, the University of Granada is one of the top universities in Spain according to international evaluation rankings.

2 AN TRULY INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

Welcoming and cosmopolitan, with 27% of international Postgraduate students, the University of Granada is the preferred destination for Erasmus+ students, offering a wide range of mobility through more than 800 exchange agreements with institutions around the world.

3 A WIDE RANGE OF PROGRAMMES AND DEGREES

The UGR offers a wide range of quality academic programmes with an international vocation. The University of Granada teaches more than 70 degrees in all areas of knowledge, more than 100 official master's degrees (20 of which are international double degree programmes), 28 doctoral programmes and an extensive offer of its own degrees (continuing education, virtual courses and summer schools).

4 LANGUAGE LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

More than 10,000 students enrol annually for foreign language and Spanish courses at the UGR's Modern Language Centre, the Russian Centre and the Confucius Institute (Chinese).

5 TOP FACILITIES AND SERVICES

The University of Granada offers a wide range of quality services in all aspects of university life (Wi-Fi network, accommodation, libraries, canteens, culture, sports, special needs, etc.)

6 AN IDEAL UNIVERSITY CITY

In Granada, the University blends into the city, distributing its centres and campuses throughout the city, giving it a unique student environment (Nearly 57,000 students in an urban area of 240,000 inhabitants).

7 WORLD-CLASS RESEARCH

Internationally recognised for its research excellence in numerous fields: Information and Documentation, Computer Engineering, Health Sciences... 500 groups from all areas of knowledge work in collaboration with leading national and international scientists in their respective fields.

8 AN INTERCONTINENTAL UNIVERSITY

Its presence extends beyond the European continent with campuses in Ceuta and Melilla in North Africa. The city of Granada, safe and modern, has a privileged location halfway between the sea (Mediterranean coast 40 minutes away) and the mountains (ski resort of Sierra Nevada 30 minutes away).

9 STEEPED IN HISTORY AND CULTURE

A historic, cultural, monumental and university city, Granada is a privileged destination for study and tourism, with a rich and varied cultural offer (flamenco, jazz, theatre, comics, poetry) and a unique gastronomy (tapas).

10 COMMITMENT TO SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

The UGR is a university committed to the objectives of sustainable development, promoting local and international volunteering activities open to the participation of its students.
