

HOW TO OBTAIN THE PRE-ADMISSION LETTER FOR A DOCTORAL EXCHANGE AT THE UGR

In order to obtain the pre-admission letter from an academic staff member so that they can supervise your doctoral research at the UGR you need to contact him/her. It is a good idea to briefly explain your interests and send a short CV attached to the request.

You can find the pre-admission letter templates via the following link: sl.ugr.es/0afj

You can find the full list of doctoral programmes offered at the UGR here: sl.ugr.es/09pp

Click on the doctoral programme you are interested in for comprehensive information and the contact details of the programme coordinator.

If you do not receive a reply in due time, please write to the International School for Postgraduate Studies (epinternacional@ugr.es) and they will intermediate. Via the following link you can obtain all the relevant information regarding the Erasmus+ K107 mobility programme at the University of Granada: sl.ugr.es/09hm

Once you have the pre-admission letter, you can upload (or submit) all the documents required to process your admission at the UGR:

- PRE-ADMISSION LETTER, signed by the coordinator of the doctoral programme
- Brief researcher CV
- Official proof of registration in the doctoral programme at the home university
- Copy of your passport
- Research plan

(Please note that language accreditation is not compulsory since it is assumed that the student and the supervisor at the UGR can speak the same language).
