

GEMMA ERASMUS MUNDUS SCHOLARSHIPS UNDER THE ERAMUS+ FRAMEWORK
CALL FOR APPLICATIONS
17th edition (2023-2025)

The Erasmus Mundus Joint Master's Degree in Women's and Gender Studies GEMMA, coordinated by the University of Granada and which has been taught since 2007/2008 academic year, opens the call for applications for the Erasmus Mundus scholarships for Partner country students for its 17th edition (2023-2025).

- WHAT IS GEMMA?

Erasmus Mundus Master's Degree in Women's and Gender Studies - GEMMA, is a two-year Postgraduate interdisciplinary study programme that provides high quality education and professional competences for personnel working or intending to work in the areas of Women's Studies, Gender Studies and Equal Opportunities across Europe and beyond. Students benefit from international mobility as they study at two different European universities and obtain a double diploma from the Home and Mobility institutions. They can also conduct research outside Europe and participate in internships. The GEMMA Master has 41 associated partners, including 45 prestigious partners such as the Universidad de Buenos Aires (Argentina), Universidad Estatal de Campinas in São Paulo (Brazil), Universidad de Chile (Chile), Florida International University (USA), Instituto Tecnológico de Santo Domingo (Dominican Republic), Universidad Nacional de Colombia (Colombia), Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México (Mexico), Rutgers University (USA), University of Columbia (USA), University of New York (USA), University of Redlands (USA), Cátedra UNESCO de Cultura y Educación para la paz Universidad Técnica Particular de Loja (Ecuador), Cátedra de la Mujer at Universidad de la Habana, Cuba, and the Centre for Women's Studies in Zagreb (Croatia). From 2019, Goldsmiths College, University of London, and the United Nations Gender Equality Studies and Training Programme of the University of Iceland have joined them also as associate partners.

- WHY STUDY GEMMA?

GEMMA is the first Erasmus Mundus Master's Degree in Women's and Gender Studies in Europe. It was originally selected by the European Commission in 2006, again in 2011 and 2017, and a fourth time in 2019. It is, therefore, a programme of excellence distinguished from amongst 150 submitted project proposals as "a pilot project and model in the field of Women's Studies and Gender Studies from a European and global perspective".

At the end of their studies, GEMMA students obtain a double degree, issued by the two institutions where they have conducted their studies.

- SCHOLARSHIPS

Prestigious Erasmus Mundus scholarships under the framework of Erasmus + are offered to NON EUROPEAN STUDENTS¹. The scholarships cover tuition fees, health insurance and travel and installation costs and include a monthly allowance.

In addition, there are scholarships for SCHOLARS who wish to complete a 2 to 4 weeks research and teaching visit of at one of the GEMMA Consortium partner universities.
