Coordinación: University of Ss. Cyril and Methodius in Trnava
(Eslovaquia)

Socios:

Masaryk University (República Checa)
Universidad de Granada (España)

Descripción:

The main objective of the project is innovation, namely innovation of the concept and curricula of doctoral study programs and increasing their effectiveness. We aim to provide PhD students with a sufficient amount of theoretical information and significant development of their practical skills in two areas, so-called hard and soft skills.
